

FANTASY FREAKO'S

ROUND 9 RAVE

CHAMPION/DATA/ISSUE 9

Hi and welcome to the ninth edition of the Fantasy Freako's rave for 2010. There are plenty of decisions that have to be made this week, one of which is what to do with Jonathan Brown? His form slump has been extremely worrying, with the decision on whether he rests or plays critical to thousands of coaches. For now, Vossy has declared him fit, so let's take his word for it. Good luck to all coaches for the upcoming round.

REPLACING TADHG KENNELLY

A change to the rules this season saw coaches with Tadhg Kennelly receive a big fat donut after he injured his knee in the opening minutes of the Fremantle clash. No longer can a player who scores zero get replaced by an emergency, which is fair enough I guess.

Trading the dashing Irishman will be at the forefront for over 108,000 coaches this week, with Kennelly ruled out for up to one month with the injury. He has served us well though, averaging 68 points per match and having a rise of $50,000, which would have been far greater if it had not been for last week's match.

Try and avoid trading a like for a like, make sure you find some money and upgrade him to a premium defender. There are plenty to choose from, with none better than Luke Hodge who averages 111 points per match, which is the most of any defender in the competition. If you're looking for value on the other hand, then Sam Fisher at $321,100 may be the way to go. Apart from his 37 points against Carlton in Round 7, he has topped 80 points in five of his other six games, scoring above 100 points on two occasions.

BRIAN LAKE NOW NO.1

Only a few weeks ago I spoke about Joel Selwood's record 185-game against the Hawks in Round 17 last season, not knowing that Brian Lake would come out and smash it with a massive 192 points last week against North Melbourne – the second-highest score ever on record and the most of any current day player. If you had him in your team, you would still be smiling after he finished with 41 disposals, 22 marks and two tackles.

ADELAIDE CROWS

FREAKO SAYS:

Can you believe that Tony Armstrong was dropped last week? Over 13,000 coaches jumped on him after his 123 points in Round 8, but Neil Craig threw a spanner in the works and left him out for the Lions clash. He was good at SANFL level last week, so let's hope he gets a reprieve.

SYDNEY SWANS

FREAKO SAYS:

We may finally see Trent Dennis-Lane make his AFL debut this week in light of the Daniel Bradshaw injury. Although he isn't a key forward, his form at reserves level has been exceptional, booting seven goals last week in a 63-point win.

WEST COAST EAGLES

FREAKO SAYS:

AFL DREAM TEAM AVERAGE

Adam Selwood just keeps on producing. He topped 100 points for the fifth time this year with a team-high 123 points against the Saints. He's not an elite player yet, but he certainly plays this game extremely well.
