

FANTASY FREAKO'S

ROUND 13

2011

CHAMPION/DATA/ISSUE 13

Hi and welcome to the 13th edition of the Fantasy Freako's rave for 2011. It was a testing week for coaches again last round, with below par scores from our premiums once again keeping overall numbers well down. For the second week in a row red vestings were the topic of discussion, with Jimmy Bartel, Chris Knights, Leigh Montagna and Jack Darling all having their games cut short.

On the positive side however, cult hero Michael Barlow returned to collect a team-high 25 disposals and 98 points. What a legend! Enjoy this week's read and good luck to everyone for the upcoming round.

BEWARE OF MICHAEL DOUGHTY

As we all licked our lips at the prospect of Matthew Boyd belting out another 120 plus point score at Etihad Stadium last week, we were left scratching our heads after the match after his dismal 70 point game – his lowest return in any match since Round 3, 2008. Why such a low score you ask? Well his record against Adelaide was poor to start with, averaging only 74 points per game from his past five matches. But with regular tagger Brent Reilly out of the picture through injury, it was left up to Michael Doughty to quell his influence.

If we look at the jobs that Doughty has performed across the year, he has shut down some of the game's best, which has included keeping Cyril Rioli to 12 disposals and no goals in Round 1. He also blanketed Andrew Krakouer in Round 9, restricting him to only three disposals and one goal. Other scalps this season have included Luke Power, Brent Harvey and Matthew Priddis.

If we look ahead to this week, the Crows take on the Cats at Skilled Stadium, and with no Joel Selwood or perhaps even Jimmy Bartel, I would expect him to get the role on Chappy. If he doesn't go to him, then Stevie J would be next in line.

DEAD EYE DICKS

One of the DT success stories at Hawthorn this year has been Shane Savage, jumping in price by $201,900 – the second-biggest increase of any player for the year. Last week against Gold Coast was his most complete performance, finishing with 33 disposals, 12 marks and a whopping 164 points. What made this display even more impressive was the fact that he was able to go forward and score four goals straight. In fact, his conversion rate across the year has been exceptional, scoring 13.1 at an impressive scoring accuracy of 93% – the best strike rate of any player in the league that has scored at least 10 goals.

If we look at the best records across the year, one could also argue that Aaron Edwards' record is even better, despite recording a slightly inferior scoring accuracy to that of Savage. This guy hasn't looked like missing, scoring 22.2 which has included an amazing 15.1 directly from set shots. If he found more of the ball around the ground, he would be the ideal forward to have in your team.

Below are the most accurate players this season, but only taking into account those that have scored at least 10 goals.

AFL DREAM TEAM AVERAGE

I flagged the prospect of Ian Callinan forcing his way into the Crows line up in the near future, and this may now be realised after an outstanding SANFL performance on the weekend. He racked up 30 disposals and must surely come into calculations.

Mitchell Golby is one of very few trades down targets in defence at the moment. He scored 70 points on debut in Round 12 and backed that up with a 39 point game last week. He may not turn out to be a consistent scorer, but he does give you an out clause if you want to make some quick cash.

FREAKO SAYS:

Lance Franklin has let us down yet again. He will miss this week's match against Essendon, a game in which 100 plus points was virtually guaranteed. He has averaged five goals against them across his career, and returned scores of 108 and 130 points from two games last year. What a blow!

North Melbourne is in red hot form. It has generated more inside 50s and scored more goals than any other side since Round 11. Andrew Swallow ranks sixth in the league in points scored in this period, which is no surprise considering he ranks seventh overall in disposals across the year.

PORT ADELAIDE

FREAKO SAYS:

There's been very little to get excited about at Port Adelaide from a DT point of view this season, up until last week that is. Domenic Cassisi came out and smashed 133 points against West Coast – the best return from any Port Adelaide player this year. Well done to the 954 coaches that have him in their side.

Dustin Martin could be the most valuable midfielder in the league if we look at his scoreboard impact. He has booted 21 goals already this season, which is the most of the top-50 ball-winners in the competition. What a jet!

ST KILDA

FREAKO SAYS:

Thankfully St Kilda has the bye this week and we can place Nick Riewoldt on the pine. He was dismal last week against Geelong, finishing with only seven disposals – his lowest return in any match since Round 14 in 2005 (not including the five disposals against Collingwood in Round 3 last season when he was injured).

WESTERN BULLDOGS

FREAKO SAYS:

As good as Daniel Giansiracusa has been in recent weeks, I wouldn't go anywhere near him. The difference between his good and bad games is too vast, scoring a season-low 51 points against the Saints in Round 12, and backing it up one week later with 105 against the Crows. Enough said.
