

FANTASY FREAKO'S

ROUND 18

2011

CHAMPION/DATA/ISSUE 18

Hi and welcome to the 18th edition of the Fantasy Freako's rave for 2011. It was another high scoring round last week, with the winning team scoring 2,582 points, one of the highest scores ever recorded. As we enter the final multi-team bye round for the year, we've been dealt an additional blow with Nick Riewoldt being suspended for one match. Despite this setback, it's no time to rest. Make sure you use this week wisely and set yourself up for a finals assault.

Enjoy this week's read and best of luck to all coaches for the upcoming round.

100 POINTS IS THE BENCHMARK

When we judge a player's score, 100 points is usually the benchmark we set. If we look at the leading players that have reached or exceeded that mark this year, there are three that have achieved this - Scott Pendlebury, Sam Mitchell and Ryan Griffen. Of the three, Griffen is perhaps the most surprising, given that he hasn't been seen as a ball-magnet up until this season, averaging a career-high 25 disposals and five tackles per game. Pendlebury and Mitchell on the other hand have been models of consistency, hitting 100 points in all but five games combined.

Looking at the next best behind them, Marc Murphy, Matthew Boyd and my man Jack Redden have all cracked the ton 12 times this year. In the case of Redden, he's been a favourite of mine all season, averaging 109 points per match, which is 30 points up on last season average. A large percentage of his scores have been made up by tackles, in which he averages eight per match this year - ranked second in the AFL.

For those of you wondering why the name Gary Ablett doesn't appear in this list, the little champ has only topped 100 points eight times this season, but when he has reached it he's really kicked on, averaging 135 points from these eight matches.

CROSS STUNS SWANS

There aren't too many players that get the better of Sydney, but Daniel Cross did just that last week. He racked up 64 points in the opening term, which was the equal second-highest score in that quarter this year. He was knocked out early in the second term and subsequently subbed out of the match, but at least he had 73 points to his name.

If we look at the most prolific first terms for the year, Sam Butler in Round 6 and Jonathon Griffin in Round 16 both started their respective games with 66 points apiece. Dean Cox racked up 64 points in the opening term in his match against Gold Coast in Round 11, with Gary Ablett rounding out the top five with his 62 points against Adelaide in Round 8.

If we look at the highest scores in any quarter across the season, young Hawk Shane Savage leads the way with 74 points in the third term against Gold Coast in Round 13. In that term alone, he gathered 11 disposals and eight marks, while he also chipped in to score two majors. Team mate Matt Suckling wasn't too far behind, racking up 18 disposals and two marks against Melbourne in Round 2 for a return of 73 points.

AFL DREAM TEAM AVERAGE

History suggests that teams always lift when there's an interim coach in charge. Will the Crows lift for Mark Bickley this week? Considering they come up against cross town rival Port Adelaide, I'm sure they'll find something extra.

ESSENDON

FREAKO SAYS:

Since Round 13, David Zaharakis has averaged 106 points per game – ranked second at Essendon. After winning 57% of his disposals in the midfield in the opening 12 rounds, that figure has jumped to 82% since Round 13 – suggesting he may spend the remainder of the year in the guts.

Plenty of coaches would've been disappointed last week as Matt Suckling missed with a back tightness. He should be back this week though for the Fremantle clash, and he looms as a solid replacement for Heath Shaw if you still have him.

RICHMOND

FREAKO SAYS:

Richmond was very vague with its prognosis on injured skipper Chris Newman this week. The club says that it doesn't know how long he will be on the sidelines for, and it hopes that he will be available for the last portion of the season. I'm not too sure what to make of that one.

ST KILDA

FREAKO SAYS:

Nick Dal Santo was unstoppable last week against Adelaide on his way to a season-high 140 points. His form since Round 13 has been outstanding, cracking the ton in each week since for an average of 126 per game – ranked equal-first in the league. This makes him a must have as captain this week against Gold Coast.

WESTERN BULLDOGS

FREAKO SAYS:

The Bulldogs are in the midst of an injury crisis this week, with up to eight players from the side that lost to the Swans in doubt for this round. This includes the likes of Shaun Higgins, Lindsay Gilbee, Adam Cooney and Daniel Cross which are all considered doubtful starters. Higgins in particular could miss the remainder of the year with a knee injury.
