

CHAMPION/DATA/ISSUE 19

Hi and welcome to the 19th edition of the Fantasy Freako's rave for 2011. In what was a record breaking round last week, scores across the board sky rocketed on the back of some massive individual numbers. The top score for the round was a whopping 2,833 points, beating the previous all-time best by more than 200 points. I'll dissect the top scorers for the round in this week's rave as well as look at the form players of the competition as we head into the final head-to-head round for the year.

Good luck to everyone this week and as always, use your trades wisely.

WHAT AN AMAZING ROUND OF FOOTY

Christmas came early for Dream Teamers last week with scores going through the roof! On the back of Geelong's record breaking 510 disposal game against the hapless Melbourne, four Cats cracked the 150 point barrier, with Joel Selwood leading the way with 43 disposals, seven marks, 11 tackles and a round-high 178 points. Stevie J also had a day out, equalling his previous best career return of seven goals and 171 points that he collected against Gold Coast in Round 10, whom he coincidentally comes up against this week. Joel Corey and Corey Enright rounded out that quartet with 164 and 156 points respectively.

Dane Swan did as he pleased against Essendon, eclipsing his previous best effort of 162 points that he posted in Round 2 earlier this season, this time smashing out 171 points courtesy of his 45 disposals and 10 marks. He comes up against Port Adelaide this week, the team he holds his record disposal tally against, racking up 48 against them in Round 10, 2009.

Dean Cox was always set for a big game once Nic Naitanui was ruled out and he didn't disappoint, finishing with 155 points, which was only two points short of his career-high of 157. He found plenty of the ball out in space, finishing with 27 disposals, while he also grabbed an equal career-high 13 marks along the way. Teammate Matt Priddis was also prominent, finishing with 150 points, which was largely made up of his 14 tackles, which was one shy of equalling his previous best tally of 15.

ONE LAST HURRAH

It's make or break for coaches across the land this week as we enter the final head-to-head round of the year, before the finals begin in Round 21. It's no time to hold back if you need a win, because as we all know there's no next week if you miss out. If you've consolidated your place in the eight or are going for the overall prize, then this isn't a time to rest either. You should be looking at making the final upgrades to your squad, and to help you with this I've included the leading scorers in the competition across the past month, but take note, only players that have completed the two byes have been included.

Although the likes of Joel Selwood (119), Marc Murphy (108), Chris Judd (114), Bryce Gibbs (124), Steve Johnson (113) and Brent Stanton (122) have been on fire since Round 16, they all have a bye coming up during the finals, which could kill you in a cut throat match. Avoid trading any of them in if you can, and concentrate on bringing in players that you won't have to replace.

ESSENDON

FREAKO SAYS:

It was great to see Jobe Watson finally return from injury last week against Collingwood, finishing with 105 points. His price fell to a season-low $327,600 – but despite this it would be foolish to bring him given Essendon's bye in Round 24.

The ruck crisis doesn't look like at easing at Fremantle with news that Jonathon Griffin could need season-ending hip surgery. It's a double whammy if you traded him in for Aaron Sandilands, who incidentally is a long way off making his return.

WESTERN BULLDOGS

FREAKO SAYS:

Matthew Boyd will leave a gaping hole in over 85,000 teams this week. He was sensational last week against the Eagles, recording his sixth score in excess of 120 points for the year.
