

FANTASY FREAKO'S

ROUND 16 RAVE

CHAMPION/DATA/ISSUE 16

Hi and welcome to the 16th edition of the Fantasy Freako's rave for 2010. It was another interesting round last week, with coaches that had Gary Ablett as captain still wondering how he could only manage 19 disposals and 81 points against the Crows. There were no major injuries to come out of the round, which means that we should have full squads to pick from this week with both Lance Franklin and Barry Hall returning. Good luck to everyone for Round 17.

SOMETHING TO PONDER...

It's no surprise that James Podsiadly has an excellent record at Skilled Stadium this year, as it's the closest to a suburban venue we have in the AFL. Considering that the Cats only have two games left there this season, we may have to make a decision as to whether we hold onto him for the rest of the year, or consider upgrading him to a Chappy or a Buddy. Yes he has been a revelation for us, but if we look closely at his record away from the Cattery, it makes for very interesting reading.

His record at Skilled Stadium is remarkable, booting five goals in each of his five games, while also averaging 16 disposals, eight marks and three tackles a match. His average of 112 points is ranked fifth at the club, which is ahead of Jimmy Bartel, Joel Selwood and Corey Enright. As I mentioned earlier, the Cats only have two games left there this season, but one of these is in Round 22 against West Coast, which in Dream Team circles is Grand Final week.

His form away from home is poor to say the least, averaging 69 points per match, which is 43 fewer points per game than at Skilled Stadium.

With the exception of his 111 points against Essendon at Etihad Stadium in Round 12, he has failed to crack the ton in any of his other seven games. He has booted only 13 goals from these matches and been held goalless on three occasions.

Looking ahead, in addition to his two matches at Skilled Stadium, there are two more games at Etihad Stadium, a trip to ANZ Stadium and a blockbuster against Collingwood at the MCG in Round 19. I would be staggered if he played in every game, with Mark Thompson likely to give him a rest before the finals, especially now with Tom Hawkins on the verge or a re-call. Whichever way you go, he has been one of the stories of the year, along with our injured hero Michael Barlow.

ADELAIDE CROWS

FREAKO SAYS:

I know I told you to stay away from Adelaide players last week, but I've had a re-think over the weekend. Bernie Vince is coming off a season-high 127 points and at his price he's an absolute bargain. He finished last year off in blazing fashion, averaging 112 points per match from Round 17 onwards – ranked sixth in the league.

FREAKO SAYS:

If you were forced to play Robbie Tarrant last week, you may as well have played one short. He could only manage 19 points against the Tigers, which is disastrous if you ask me. He's now out for up to one month with a thumb injury, which means we're one man short in the forward line.
